PLAY AND PERFORMANCE: CREATING LIFE-SPACES IN WHICH LEARNING LEADS DEVELOPMENT

Rachael Anne Williamson
University of Washington Tacoma
Master of Arts and Interdisciplinary Studies
Sudbury School Model

The original Sudbury School was founded in 1968 by Daniel Greenberg in Framingham, Massachusetts.

Since that time, a handful of schools across the nation and outside the U.S. have adopted the Sudbury model, including the Clearwater School in Bothell, Washington.

Although the schools are not officially linked, they adhere to the same learning philosophy and democratic structure as the original Sudbury Valley School.
Neurodivergent Students and Traditional Education
The ZPD and Students on the Spectrum
References

Images:

Sudbury 50th Anniversary (2017, September 27). In Facebook

