

Developing Suburban White Educators' Racial Literacy

Hannah Brenlan

So you want to talk about race

“...the capacity to decipher the...
racial grammar...”

(Guinier, 2004, p.6)

France Winddance Twine

A WHITE SIDE OF BLACK BRITAIN

INTERRACIAL INTIMACY AND RACIAL LITERACY

Photographs by Michael Smyth

France Winddance Twine

Image by Carmen Winant

The ability to navigate conversations about race, and understand how race impacts ourselves and our students inside and outside of the classroom.

“[Racial literacy] is about learning rather than knowing.”

(Guinier, 2004, p.19)

