

LOSS OF APPETITE

NEDRALANI MAILO

Every alarming sound put in one headline to end my day
Violent criminal records just rolls off the tongue
so beautifully.

“Dual attacks in Copenhagen had a copycat,” what a Mouthful of dissonance, as it continues to say
“Denmark has been hit by terror”
Way to grab my attention.

Stomach rumbling as we hit the main course
of open fires in the Norrebro neighborhood.
Dense flavor of chaos just exploded in my mouth, 3
0 shots fired at a nearby café,
Such great imagery being shown as I end my meal
I think I'll skip out on dessert tonight.
