ABOUT THE PEICE

I used the feather quill pen to represent the whole spirit of the literary arts magazine. When people see the feather quill pen, they will know what Tahoma West is about. I also used the gold color because Tahoma West is a national award-winning literary arts magazine, and I hope that our school magazine’s accomplishments can continue as well as that our school’s magazine shines and becomes bright.
Ka Yee Chan (Kelly)
Logo Design Contest Winner