

Dwindling

Angelica Hernandez-Villalpando

---

I feel my flame growing colder
It's dwindling
Spiraling
I'm losing
Falling
Crashing
I no longer believe in what once kept me going
What once kept me breathing
Numbness continues to take over the parts of me
That were once blossoming
Thriving
Living
It's all empty space now
It's all lifeless
Chilling
And gray
