

University of Washington Libraries Non-Exclusive Distribution License

In order for the University of Washington Libraries to reproduce, translate and distribute your submission in accordance with any access restrictions you may have placed on your manuscript and all supplementary materials your agreement with the following terms is necessary.

By signing and submitting this license, you (the author) grant to the University of Washington (UW) the non-exclusive right to reproduce, translate (as defined below), and/or distribute your submission (including the abstract), in accordance with any access restrictions you have assigned, in print and electronic format and in any medium, including but not limited to audio or video.

You retain all copyright to the materials submitted and may, in turn, publish or present the materials in other locations as you desire.

You agree that UW may, without changing the content, translate the submission to any medium or format for the purpose of preservation.

You also agree that UW may keep more than one copy of this submission for purposes of security, back-up and preservation.

You represent that the submission is your original work, and that you have the right to grant the rights contained in this license. You also represent that your submission does not, to the best of your knowledge, infringe upon anyone's copyright.

If the submission contains material for which you do not hold copyright, you represent that you have obtained the unrestricted permission of the copyright owner to grant UW the rights required by this license, and that such third-party owned material is clearly identified and acknowledged within the text or content of the submission.

The UW Libraries reserves the right to add or edit metadata for the purpose of access, clarification and/or preservation.

UW will clearly identify your name as the author and copyright of the submission, and will not make any alteration, other than as allowed by this license, to your submission.
